Course Description

This course helps students identify as a Berkeley Changemaker and learn the critical thinking, communication, and collaboration skills to become one. Combining theoretical and practical topics and bringing perspectives from disciplines across UC Berkeley, this course helps students develop their own leadership styles and discover how they can create and lead diverse teams – and act upon the world – to effect positive change. Students learn how to lead from whatever position they occupy and are prepared to leave their mark as a changemaker, whether on campus, in their communities, or beyond.

The course has four parts that build upon and connect to one another:

Part 1: You are a Berkeley Changemaker

Purpose: Seeing yourself as a leader.

Part 2: Changemaking as Questioning

Purpose: Seeing more clearly what needs to change/what questions to ask.

Part 3: Changemaking Together

Purpose: Learning how to work with other people to effect change.

Part 4: Changemaking in Practice

Purpose: Discovering how to turn ideas into action.
